Franco Bianchini (UK) is one of the Associate Directors of the Centre for Cultural Value, based at the University of Leeds and funded by the UK's Arts and Humanities Research Council, Arts Council England and Paul Hamlyn Foundation. Franco is also Visiting Professor at the Sibelius Academy, University of the Arts, Helsinki, and a member of the Council of Founders of the Fitzcarraldo Foundation, Turin. He was

Professor of Cultural Policy and Planning - and Director of the Culture, Place and Policy Institute (CPPI) - at the University of Hull from 2016-2020. His books include Focus on Festivals (2015), Urban Mindscapes of Europe (2006), Planning for the Intercultural City (2004), The Creative City (1995). His research interests range from the role of culture in urban regeneration (with a particular focus on port cities and on European Cities/Capitals of Culture), to cultural diversity and interculturalism as resources for innovation in urban policy, and the development of urban cultural strategies in the context of the current political, economic and environmental crises.

Lluís Bonet (ES) is professor at the Department of Economics and Director of the Cultural Management Program of the University of Barcelona. His main fields of research are cultural policies, cultural economics and cultural management. He has been research fellow at the MIT and the University of Montpellier, and guest lecturer in over 50 different countries. Winner of the CAC Research Prize, he has been President of the Jury of the Cultural Policy Research Award and the European Network on Cultural Management and Policy (ENCATC). Active researcher in many competitive international projects such EULAC Focus (H2020), Be SpectACTive! (Creative Europe), MESOC (H2020), Stronger peripheries: a Southern coalition (Creative Europe), or Crowdfunding in the Culture Sector (Research Council of Norway).
